

International School in Genoa (ISG) is an international school in Genoa, Italy, serving grades preschool through 12.[1] It was first established in 1966.[2]
It became an International Baccalaureate school on December 11, 2000, when it introduced the IB diploma programme (for high school).[3]