

The National Institute of Ear, Nose and Throat, Bangladesh is a specialized hospital and training center in ear, nose and throat (Otorhinolaryngology) diseases located in Tejgaon, Dhaka, Bangladesh.[1] Construction of the institute began in 2009 and the new 12-storied building was inaugurated by the Prime Minister of Bangladesh, Sheikh Hasina on June 19, 2013.

When fully functional the 250-bed specialized institute would have an international standard audio-vestibular lab, sleep lab and voice study lab. It would act as an important center for training professionals in treating ENT disorders. The current director of the hospital is Prof. Dr. Mohammad Abdullah.

In this hospital there are four type of beds to admit. Operation charge is only 2000 tk here.

AC Cabin : 1125 tk /day, including of Operation charge 10 days fees is in total 13,250 tk

Non- AC Cabin: 525 tk /day, including of Operation charge 10 days fees is in total 7,250 tk

Paying Bed: 275 tk /day, including of Operation charge 10 days fees is in total 3,750 tk

Free Bed: Free of cost