

Helsinki University Central Hospital (HUCH; Finnish: Helsingin seudun yliopistollinen keskussairaala; Swedish: Helsingfors universitets centralsjukhus) is a hospital network in Finland. It is one of the largest hospitals in Europe. It encompasses 17 hospitals in Helsinki, Espoo and Vantaa, and has all major medical specialties represented. The HUCH Hospital Area is one of the five hospital areas making up the Hospital District of Helsinki and Uusimaa (HUS).

HUCH hospitals in Helsinki consist of the following:

Aurora Hospital

Children's Castle

Children's Hospital

Department of Oncology

Eye and Ear Hospital[1]

Meilahti Tower Hospital (Meilahti Hospital)

Meilahti Triangle Hospital

Psychiatrycenter

Skin and Allergy Hospital

Surgical Hospital[2]

Women's Hospital.

HUCH hospitals in Espoo and Vantaa:

Jorvi Hospital

Peijas Hospital