

Guangzhou Korea School

Chinese name

Simplified Chinese 广州韩国学校

Traditional Chinese 廣州韓國學校

show

Transcriptions

Korean name

Hangul 광저우한국학교

Guangzhou Korea School (Chinese: 广州韩国学校, Korean: 광저우한국학교) is a South Korean international school within the Jinxiuxiangjiang Primary School^[note 1] located within the Jinxiuxiangjiang Apartment^[note 2] in Nancun Town^[note 3], Panyu District, Guangzhou.^{[1][2]}

In 2011 Kim Jang-hwan, the consul general of South Korea to Guangzhou, revealed that a Korean international school was opening in Guangzhou.^[3] Many Koreans lived in Panyu District so the school was scheduled to be located there.^[4] The Chinese Ministry of Education approved the school as a school for teaching foreigners on July 24, 2013.^[5]

Contents

1 See also

2 Notes

3 References

4 External links

See also^[edit]

Koreans in China

Notes^[edit]