

Aviano American High School (also referred to as Aviano Middle/High School) is a European Department of Defense Education Activity secondary school located on the Italian owned NATO Air Base in Aviano, Italy which hosts the 31st Fighter Wing. The majority of students are dependents of active duty military personnel, DoD employees, contractors and diplomats, although a small percentage are children of other English speaking expatriates or local Italian residents.

As of the 2008–2009 school year Aviano Middle School and Aviano High School were joined into one school serving grades 6-12. It is classified as a Division II school in DoDDS Europe. The school's mascot is the saint.

Student government[edit]

The purpose of the student government at Aviano is to provide everyone with a chance to have a say in what goes on in the student body. The student government acts as advocates to the administration on behalf of students. They also organize school events such as pep rallies and dances. Each office is headed by a President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and a Public Relations officer.

Executive Office - Serves as main advocates for the school, handles school wide issues.

Officers are elected by the students.

Senior Class - Handles senior issues and events including graduation. Officers are elected by 12th grade students

Junior Class - Organizes the Junior and Senior Prom, handles Junior issues, officers are elected by 11th grade students

Sophomore Class - Handles Sophomore issues, officers are elected by 10th grade students

Freshmen Class - Handles Freshmen issues, officers are elected by 9th grade students
