

Abbas Institute of Medical Sciences (Urdu: عباس طبی علوم ادارہ, abbreviated as AIMS) is a hospital located in Muzaffarabad, Azad Jammu & Kashmir, Pakistan. It is one of the oldest hospitals in the province and a teaching hospital affiliated with Azad Jammu Kashmir Medical College.

Contents

1 History

2 Teaching hospital status

3 Free treatment to poor cancer patients

4 References

History[edit]

Abbas Institute of Medical Sciences was established in 1992 and is the first hospital of its kind in the city and region.

Teaching hospital status[edit]

In 2012, Azad Jammu Kashmir Medical College was established and the hospital was given the status of teaching hospital by the Pakistan Medical and Dental Council.[1] The hospital is recognized by College of Physicians and Surgeons Pakistan for postgraduate residency in different disciplines.

Free treatment to poor cancer patients[edit]

On 12 September 2019, the then Special Assistant to the Prime Minister for Health Zafar Mirza, said The Ministry of National Health Services and a pharmaceutical firm signed a Letter of Understanding to provide free treatment to poor cancer patients in Islamabad, Gilgit-Baltistan and Azad Kashmir under a public-private partnership.[2]