

French School of Hurghada (French: École Française d'Hurghada) is a French school located in Hurghada, Egypt.

It was established in 2004 and controlled by the cultural center of the French Embassy in Egypt. It teaches children from 3 years old with a French curriculum.

Located between the Marriott and Les Rois Hotels in Hurghada, the French School of Hurghada relocated in September 2009 to a new location 15 km north of Hurghada (between the Fayrouz and El Nour compounds) on the desert road towards El Gouna, on 13,000 m2 of land.
