History[edit]

Dr. Devi Shetty founded Narayana Hrudalaya (NH) in the year 2000 with a 280-bed heart hospital[9] in Bangalore.[10][11]

In 2013, Narayana Hrudyalaya officially changed its identity to Narayana Health.[12] It now operates several hospitals and heart centres across India, making it the second largest hospital network in India (based on operational bed count). Since 2014, the group operates Health City Cayman Islands in Grand Caymen. Dr. Emmanuel Rupert was made the MD & Group CEO in the place of Dr. Ashutosh Raghuvansha following the latter's resignation in January 2019.[13]

Listing[edit]

Narayana Hrudyalaya was listed on the BSE and the NSE on 6 January 2016. Upon debut, the company was valued at over US$1 billion.[14]
